Mark Cano, with Cano Law, specializes in probation and non-compliance matters in both Pasco Municipal Court and Benton County District Court. If you have a non-compliance matter that has been assigned to me, please get in contact with me at least a week before your next scheduled hearing.

Due to the fact that I am in court on an almost daily basis, a little more than most attorneys, it can be hard to get a hold of me. However, if you call my office phone, 509-367-8499, and leave a detailed message, I am pretty good at following up with any voicemails left within the same week.

The best and easiest way to get a hold of me is by either texting (509-367-8499) or by sending an email (mark@cano-law.com).

I am generally in my office and available for meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. These afternoons will also be a good time to call if you need to discuss something over the phone.

If for any reason you are unable to come to court on your scheduled hearing date, please notify me as soon as possible, by text or email, the reason, and any supporting documentation. I will try my best to reset the hearing without a warrant, however, the judge has the final say in whether a warrant will be issued.

Thank you,

Mark Cano
